

Additional Text:

Some people with epilepsy experience an aura before their seizure. An aura is a symptom that can occur before a seizure such as nausea, anxiety, strange smells, or something that just seems different. Auras can be very unique to the individual but helpful at predicting when a seizure is going to happen.